SPECIFICATION AND INVENTORY

2004 Superyacht of the Year "Where the Dreams have No End" is a 2003 Royal Denship Open 80 Yacht and represents all that is the finest of this exceptional builder. The finish of the yacht is absolutely first class and second to none. There is much innovation in the yacht such as its custom designed entertainment system, its modular built engine room, or the large sliding roof that makes the upper deck salon equally suitable for days and evenings. As a result, the yacht was awarded the prestigious "Superyacht of the year 2004" by the Superyacht Design Society in the 23-32m class. The spacious interior below decks includes a large aft owner's stateroom, a double cabin amidships, and a VIP guestroom fore. The yacht has been equipped with a comprehensive state of the art Lantic entertainment system for music and video including movies, and access to the navigation displays such as the chart plotter and the radar screens.

ACCOMMODATIONS

This Royal Denship Open 80 Yacht has accommodation for six guests. The Owner's stateroom is aft, the twin cabin is amidships and the VIP guest stateroom is forward. There is a crew cabin aft, accommodating two crew members.
